Championship of Section "A" May Be Settled on that Day-Snyder Batting Well with New Haven Team-No Decision Reached in Phipps Protest by Board.

By N. T. WORLEY.

With the Commissioners and Cornell Company tied for first honors, the fight for the District amateur laurels has taken a turn which forecasts a harder battle than was anticipated. A victory over the Paperhangers by the Departmental Leaguers Thursday will give them the championship, and with "Dick" Robertson and Byrd to do the flinging, the Commissioners have an equal show to land the bunting.

Vaughn's injury, and a foolish move on the part of the Cornell manager in pitching Norris, when he had Buscher and Kerr on the bench in a recent game, have materially decreased the chances of the Cornell tribe. Menefee is back in town and will be on the Capital City team in the next game, and it is stated from good authority that some other of Manager Cornell's so-called "Greensboro goldbricks" will be home before

To-day the Twining team will meet the Bankers on their home lot, and it will take mighty good ball playing on the ROBERTSON'S HOMER part of the Independence Leaguers to bring home the bacon. Should Twining win, that team will have much the best of the argument when these two clubs meet at McDevitt's Field, and the Bloomingdale aggregation should waltz off with

Seldom has a Washington amateur broken into fast company with as good a start as Snyder, the big navy yard player, who joined the New Haven team in the Connecticut League last week. In yesterday's game, Snyder went to bat with the score 2 to 1, in favor of Hartford, and with a man on third and second and one out, Snyder singled, scoring the Snyder made two put outs and three assists in right field and was cheered each time he went to bat.
